ADDICTION, TRAUMA AND RECOVERY

W/ ANNE CROTHERS, M. ED. & JERRY KATCHMER, MSW
SATURDAY, OCTOBER 2, 2010, 9:30 AM TO 12:30 PM

Need a refresher on addiction basics? Want a good look at how trauma affects addiction treatment and recovery? Not sure how to identify addicts who may be in your caseload? This is the training for you! Issues covered will include: the disease model of addiction, impact of addiction and trauma on the family, how trauma affects treatment and recovery of addicts, working with recovering people, and types of interventions for addiction. Addiction work encompasses substance use, behaviors, basically a life out of balance. Increase your ability to identify addiction issues in new clients. Join us! Cost: $75, 3 CEUs pending

Facilitated by Anne Crothers, M.Ed. & Jerry Katchmer, MSW: Anne works with children, teens, adults and families and is an expert in trauma. Anne practices here at Healing Works in Allentown, PA. Jerry is an addiction expert and a professional speaker. He practices in Florida. Anne and Jerry partner for their Family Transformational Interventions for addiction and compulsive behaviors. Their info is on the HW website.
